

ARTIST INSPIRATION

Art often helps us to grow and to give us answers. Before painting you feel fear, fear of the truth. In life nothing is clear, nothing is ever clear and an emotion or a truth cannot be expressed in words because our mind intervenes and makes them dirty. It is only art, which often does not want to leave us, which is a prisoner in us, to reveal the most hidden truths and emotions.

BIOGRAPHY

Luca Sacchetti is born in Rome in 1962 where he lives until 1985, when, after completing his classical studies and obtaining a degree in Economics, he moves first to Paris and later to Fontainebleau where he conceives the Master in Business Administration at INSEAD. In 1998, after moving to Milan, Luca becomes a senior communication manager and art director first for fashion companies and then for his own communication company Star Factory, that he opens in 1993 and manages till 2004. In 2003, following his childhood passion for architecture, art and design, he takes the decision to change roles: in 2004 he presents his first art design collection Dreams in Milan and, between 2005 and 2010, he realizes Eiffel, Sleeping Beauty and Visions collections. In 2009 he enters at Accademia di Belle Arti di Brera in Milan, where he obtains the graduate diploma in Painting in March 2014. Since 2010, he starts working in painting, sculpture, multimedia installations and industrial design, participating to several collective and solo art exhibitions. In 2012, Fondazione CRT in Turin acquires several of his art design and art works and later on some of his art works become part of the permanent collection of Mario Rimoldi Museum in Cortina d'Ampezzo and of the Sculpture Park "Parco del Sojo, Arte e Natura".
